B. it is reasonably related to the purpose for which it is adopted;

C. it applies to all tenants in the property in a fair manner;

D. it is sufficiently explicit in its prohibition, direction, or limitation of the tenant's conduct to fairly inform the tenant of what the tenant must or must not do to comply;

E. it is not for the purpose of evading the obligations of Landlord; and

F. Tenant has written notice of it at the time the Tenant enters into the rental agreement, or when it is adopted.

If a rule or regulation adopted after Tenant enters into this Agreement works a substantial modification of the bargain, it is not valid unless Tenant consents to it in writing. If adopted, an occupancy guideline for the Premises shall not be more restrictive than two people per bedroom and shall be reasonable. Reasonableness shall be determined on a case-by-case basis. Factors to be considered in determining reasonableness include, but are not limited to the size of the bedrooms, the overall size of the Premises, and any discriminatory impact on those identified in ORS 659A.421.

23. EXTENDED ABSENCES. Tenant shall notify Landlord in advance if Tenant will be away from the Premises for more than seven consecutive days. Tenant shall provide Landlord with such notice no later than the first day of the extended absence. During such absences, Landlord may enter the Premises as reasonably necessary to inspect the Premises and perform needed maintenance or repairs.

24. ABANDONMENT. Per ORS 90.302(2)(e), if the Agreement Term is fixed term and Tenant abandons the Premises without cause, Landlord may charge Tenant an abandonment fee of one and one-half times the monthly rental amount of ${MonthlyRent}. Landlord may not assess this fee if the abandonment or relinquishment is pursuant to the following:
- A. Tenant is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking per O.R.S § 90.453 (2);
 - B. Tenant is a State service member per 90.472; or
 - C. Tenant is moving due to active service in the military per ORS 90.475 service in Armed Forces.

If Landlord assesses a fee under this section, Landlord may not recover unpaid rent for the remainder of the Agreement Term beyond the date that Landlord knew or reasonably should have known of the abandonment or relinquishment, and Landlord may not recover damages related to the cost of renting the Premises to a new tenant.

25. ABANDONED PERSONAL PROPERTY. Landlord is responsible for abandoned personal property and shall store, sell, or dispose of abandoned personal property as provided in this section and ORS 90.425.
- A. Notice Delivery. Prior to storing, selling, or disposing of Tenant's personal property under this section, Landlord must give a written notice to Tenant that must be:
 - i. personally delivered to Tenant; or
 - ii. sent by first class mail addressed and mailed to Tenant at:
 - a. the Premises;
 - b. any post-office box held by Tenant and actually known to Landlord; and
 - c. the most recent forwarding address if provided by Tenant or actually known to Landlord.
 - B. Notice Information. The notice required under subsection (A) above must state that:
 - i. the personal property left upon the Premises is considered abandoned;
 - ii. Tenant or any lienholder or owner must contact Landlord by a specified date, as provided in subsection (C) below, to arrange for the removal of the abandoned personal property;
 - iii. the personal property is stored at a place of safekeeping, except that if the property includes a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the dwelling or home must be stored on the rented space;

- iv. Tenant or any lienholder or owner, except as provided by ORS 90.425(18), may arrange for removal of the personal property by contacting Landlord at a described telephone number or address on or before the specified date;
 - v. Landlord shall make the personal property available for removal by Tenant or any lienholder or owner, except as provided by ORS 90.425(18), by appointment at reasonable times;
 - vi. if the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection ORS 90.425(2)(a) or (b), Landlord may require payment of removal and storage charges, as provided by subsection (I) below, prior to releasing the personal property to Tenant or any lienholder or owner;
 - vii. if the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to ORS 90.425(2)(c)(i.e., eviction), Landlord may not require payment of storage charges prior to releasing the personal property;
 - viii. if Tenant or any lienholder or owner fails to contact the Landlord by the specified date, or after that contact, fails to remove the personal property within 30 days for recreational vehicles, manufactured dwellings, and floating homes or 15 days for all other personal property, the Landlord may sell or dispose of the personal property. If Landlord reasonably believes that the personal property will be eligible for disposal pursuant to subsection (G)(i)(b) below and Landlord intends to dispose of the property if the property is not claimed, the notice shall state that belief and intent; and
 - ix. if the personal property includes a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home and if applicable, there is a lienholder or owner that has a right to claim the recreational vehicle, dwelling, or home, except as provided by ORS 90.425(18).
- C. Specified Date. For purposes of subsection (B) above, the specified date by which Tenant, lienholder or owner must contact Landlord to arrange for the disposition of abandoned personal property is:
- i. For abandoned recreational vehicles, manufactured dwellings, or floating homes, not less than 45 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice; or
 - ii. For all other abandoned personal property, not less than five days after personal delivery or eight days after mailing of the notice.
- D. Storage. After notifying Tenant as required by subsection (B) above, Landlord:
- i. shall store any abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home on the rented space and shall exercise reasonable care for the dwelling or home;

- ii. shall store all other abandoned personal property of Tenant, including goods left inside a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling, or floating home or left upon the rented space outside a recreational vehicle, dwelling, or home, in a place of safekeeping and shall exercise reasonable care for the personal property, except that Landlord may:
 - a. promptly dispose of rotting food; and
 - b. allow an animal control agency to remove any abandoned pets or livestock. If an animal control agency will not remove the abandoned pets or livestock, Landlord shall exercise reasonable care for the animals given all the circumstances, including the type and condition of the animals, and may give the animals to an agency that is willing and able to care for the animals, such as a humane society or similar organization;
- iii. except for manufactured dwellings and floating homes, may store the abandoned personal property at the dwelling unit, move and store it elsewhere on the Premises, or move and store it at a commercial storage company or other place of safekeeping; and
- iv. is entitled to reasonable or actual storage charges and costs incidental to storage or disposal, including any cost of removal to a place of storage. In the case of an abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home, the storage charge may be no greater than the monthly space rent last payable by Tenant.

E. Response Within Time Period. If Tenant, lienholder, or owner, upon the receipt of the notice provided by subsection (A) or (B) above or otherwise, responds by actual notice to Landlord on or before the specified date in Landlord's notice that Tenant, lienholder, or owner intends to remove the personal property from the premises or from the place of safekeeping, Landlord must make that personal property available for removal by Tenant, lienholder, or owner by appointment at reasonable times during the 15 days or, in the case of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling, or floating home, 30 days following the date of the response, subject to ORS 90.425(18). If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to ORS 90.425(2)(a) or (b), but not pursuant to ORS 90.425(2)(c), Landlord may require payment of removal and storage charges, as provided in subsection (D)(iv), prior to allowing Tenant, lienholder, or owner to remove the personal property. Acceptance by Landlord of such payment does not operate to create or reinstate a tenancy or create a waiver pursuant to O.R.S § 90.412 or 90.417.

F. Failure To Respond; Property Presumed Abandoned. Except as provided in subsections ORS 90.425(18) to (20), if Tenant, lienholder, or owner of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling, or floating home does not respond within the time provided by Landlord's notice, or Tenant, lienholder, or owner does not remove the personal property within the time required by subsection (E) or by any date agreed to with Landlord, whichever is later, Tenant's, lienholder's, or owner's personal property is conclusively presumed to be abandoned. Tenant and any lienholder or owner that have been given notice pursuant to subsection (A) or (B) shall, except with regard to the distribution of sale proceeds pursuant to subsection (I), have no further right, title, or interest to the personal property and may not claim or sell the property.

G. Landlord's Remedies. If the personal property is presumed to be abandoned under subsection (F) above, Landlord then may:

i. sell the personal property at a public or private sale, provided that prior to the sale of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling, or floating home:

a. Landlord may seek to transfer ownership of record of the personal property by complying with the requirements of the appropriate state agency; and

b. Landlord shall:

I. place a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling, or floating home is located. The notice shall state:

1. that the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling, or floating home is abandoned;
2. Tenant's and owner's name, if of record or actually known to Landlord;
3. the address and any space number where the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling, or floating home is located, and any plate, registration, or other identification number for a recreational vehicle or floating home noted on the certificate of title, if actually known to Landlord;
4. whether the sale is by private bidding or public auction;
5. whether the Landlord is accepting sealed bids and, if so, the last date on which bids will be accepted; and
6. the name and telephone number of the person to contact to inspect the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling, or floating home;

II. at a reasonable time prior to the sale, give a copy of the notice required by subparagraph (G)(i)(b)

(I) to Tenant and to any lienholder and owner, by personal delivery or first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service must be by first class mail with certificate of mailing;

III. obtain an affidavit of publication from the newspaper to show that the notice required under subparagraph (G)(i)(b)(I) ran in the newspaper at least one day in each of two consecutive weeks prior to the date scheduled for the sale or the last date bids will be accepted; and

IV. obtain written proof from the county that all property taxes and assessments on the manufactured dwelling or floating home have been paid or, if not paid, that the county has authorized the sale, with the sale proceeds to be distributed pursuant to subsection (I) below;

c. destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property if Landlord determines that:

I. for a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the current market value of the property is $8,000 or less as determined by the county assessor; or

II. for all other personal property, the reasonable current fair market value is $1,000 or less or so low that the cost of storage and conducting a public sale probably exceeds the amount that would be realized from the sale; or

d. consistent with paragraphs (I) and (II) of this section, sell certain items, and destroy or otherwise dispose of the remaining personal property.

H. Sale.

i. A public or private sale authorized by this section must:

a. for a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling, or floating home, be conducted consistent with the terms listed in subsection (G)(i)(b)(I) above. Every aspect of the sale including the method, manner, time, place, and terms must be commercially reasonable; or

b. for all other personal property, be conducted under the provisions of ORS 79.0610.

ii. if there is no buyer at a sale of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the personal property is considered to be worth $8,000 or less, regardless of current market value, and the Landlord shall destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property.

I. Costs.

- i. Landlord may deduct from the proceeds of the sale:
 - a. the reasonable or actual cost of notice, storage, and sale; and
 - b. unpaid rent.
 - ii. if the sale was of a manufactured dwelling, or floating home, after deducting the amounts listed in paragraph (i) above, Landlord shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to the county tax collector to the extent of any unpaid property taxes and assessments owed on the dwelling or home.
 - iii. if the sale was of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling, or floating home, after deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (i) and (ii) above, if applicable, Landlord shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to any lienholder to the extent of any unpaid balance owed on the lien on the recreational vehicle, dwelling, or home.
 - iv. after deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) above, if applicable, Landlord shall remit to Tenant or owner the remaining proceeds, if any, together with an itemized accounting.
 - v. if Tenant or owner cannot after due diligence be found, the Landlord shall deposit the remaining proceeds with the county treasurer of the county in which the sale occurred. If not claimed within three years, the deposited proceeds revert to the general fund of the county and are available for general purposes.
26. REMOVAL OF MOTOR VEHICLES BY LANDLORD. Landlord may have a motor vehicle removed from the property only in compliance with ORS 90.485 and either ORS 98.810 to 98.818 or ORS 98.830 and 98.840.
27. 100-YEAR FLOOD PLAIN. As used in this section, “100-year flood plain” means the level that flood waters may be expected to equal or exceed once each 100 years, as determined by the National Flood Insurance Program of the Federal Emergency Management Agency. If the Premises is located in a 100-year flood plain, Landlord shall provide notice in the Additional Provisions section below. Per ORS 90.228, if Landlord fails to provide a notice required under this section, and Tenant incurs an uninsured loss due to flooding, Tenant may recover from Landlord the lesser of the actual damages for the uninsured loss or two months' rent.
28. BEDROOM ESCAPE ROUTE. Per ORS 90.460, Landlord shall provide at all times during the tenancy a route of exit from a bedroom, other than the main entrance to the bedroom, for use during an emergency. “Bedroom” has the meaning given that term in ORS 90.262 (i.e., is intended to be used primarily for sleeping purposes, contains at least 70 square feet, and is configured so as to take the need for a fire exit into account.) The secondary route of exit must conform to applicable law. If Landlord fails to comply with the requirements of this section, Tenant may recover actual damages, and Tenant may terminate the tenancy by providing Landlord actual notice and a description of the noncompliance 72 hours prior to the date of termination.

A. If Landlord cures the noncompliance within the 72-hour period:

- i. the tenancy does not terminate; and
- ii. Tenant may recover Tenant's actual damages.

B. If Landlord fails to cure the noncompliance within the 72-hour period:

- i. the tenancy terminates;
- ii. Tenant may recover twice Tenant's actual damages or twice the periodic rent, whichever is greater; and
- iii. Landlord must return all security deposits and prepaid rent owed to Tenant under ORS 90.300 within four days after the termination.

29. QUIET ENJOYMENT AND LANDLORD'S RIGHT TO ACCESS. Per ORS 90.322:

A. Right Of Access. Landlord may enter the Premises for the following:

- i. to inspect the Premises;
- ii. to make necessary or agreed repairs, decorations, alterations, or improvements;
- iii. to supply necessary or agreed services;
- iv. to perform agreed yard maintenance or grounds keeping; or
- v. to exhibit the Premises to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workers, or contractors.

B. Limitations.

- i. Notices. Landlord may enter the Premises not including the dwelling unit without notice to or consent of Tenant for the purpose of serving notices;
- ii. Emergency. If Landlord makes an emergency entry, Landlord shall give Tenant actual notice within 24 hours after the entry, and the notice shall include the fact of the entry, the date and time of the entry, the nature of the emergency, and the names of the persons who entered;
- iii. Repair Requests. If Tenant requests repairs or maintenance in writing, Landlord may enter, in the absence of Tenant or without the Tenant's consent, for the purpose of making the requested repairs until the repairs are completed. Tenant's written request may specify allowable times. Otherwise, the entry must be at a reasonable time. The authorization to enter provided by Tenant's written request expires after seven days, unless the repairs are in progress and Landlord is making a reasonable effort to complete the repairs in a timely manner. If the person entering to do the repairs is not Landlord, upon request of Tenant, the person must show the Tenant written evidence from Landlord authorizing that person to act for Landlord in making the repairs;

- iv. Showing The Premises. Landlord and Tenant may agree that Landlord or the Landlord's agent may enter the Premises without notice at reasonable times for the purpose of showing the Premises to a prospective buyer, provided that the showing agreement:
 - a. is executed at a time when Landlord is actively engaged in attempts to sell the Premises;
 - b. is reflected in a writing separate from this Agreement and signed by both parties; and
 - c. is supported by separate consideration recited in the showing agreement.
 - v. Yard Maintenance. If a written agreement requires Landlord to perform yard maintenance or grounds keeping for the Premises:
 - a. Landlord and Tenant may agree that Landlord or Landlord's agent may enter for that purpose upon the Premises under the Tenant's exclusive control not including the dwelling unit, without notice to Tenant, at reasonable times and with reasonable frequency. The terms of the right of entry must be described in a separate written agreement.
 - b. Tenant may deny consent for Landlord or Landlord's agent to enter upon the Premises pursuant to this section if the entry is at an unreasonable time or with unreasonable frequency. Tenant must assert the denial by giving actual notice of the denial to the Landlord or Landlord's agent prior to, or at the time of, the attempted entry.
 - vi. Other. In all other cases, unless there is an agreement between Landlord and Tenant to the contrary regarding a specific entry, Landlord shall give Tenant at least 24 hours' actual notice of the intent of Landlord to enter, and the Landlord or Landlord's agent may enter only at reasonable times. Landlord or Landlord's agent may not enter if Tenant, after receiving Landlord's notice, denies consent to enter. Tenant must assert this denial of consent by giving actual notice of the denial to Landlord or the Landlord's agent or by attaching a written notice of the denial in a secure manner to the main entrance to that portion of the Premises of which the Tenant has exclusive control, prior to or at the time of the attempt by the Landlord or Landlord's agent to enter. Landlord may not abuse the right of access or use it to harass Tenant. Tenant may not unreasonably withhold consent from Landlord to enter.
30. FORCE MAJEURE. If Landlord or Tenant cannot reasonably perform its obligations under this Agreement because of a natural disaster, war, terrorist activities, civil commotion, an act of God, or any other event beyond Landlord's or Tenant's control (except for non-availability of funds), the party shall not be in breach of this Agreement if the party diligently performs the obligations after the end of the force majeure event. The non-performing party shall give written notice to the other party as soon as practicable in the event of non-performance due to a force majeure event.

31. ASSIGNMENT, SUBLEASE, AND RELEASE. Tenant shall not sublet any part of the Premises or assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of Landlord. Unless Landlord issues Tenant a written release, Tenant shall not be released from this Agreement for any reason including but not limited to school withdrawal or transfer, business or employment transfer, loss of employment, marriage, divorce, separation, or bad health, with the exception of certain military service members, victims of domestic violence, and any other exceptions as may be permitted under federal and/or state law. Landlord may charge Tenant a reasonable administrative fee for any assignment, sublet, or release.

32. GROUND FOR TERMINATION OF THE TENANCY.

A. Termination By Landlord. Landlord may terminate this Agreement if:

- i. Tenant or Tenant's occupants, guests, or invitees fail to comply with any term of this Agreement;
- ii. Tenant misrepresents any material fact on Tenant's rental application;
- iii. Tenant, someone in Tenant's control, or Tenant's pet seriously threatens to inflict substantial personal injury, or inflicts any substantial personal injury, upon a person on the property other than Tenant;
- iv. Tenant or someone in Tenant's control recklessly endangers a person on the property other than Tenant by creating a serious risk of substantial personal injury;
- v. Tenant, someone in Tenant's control, or Tenant's pet inflicts any substantial personal injury upon a neighbor living in the immediate vicinity of the property;
- vi. Tenant or someone in Tenant's control intentionally inflicts any substantial damage to the property or Tenant's pet inflicts substantial damage to the property on more than one occasion;
- vii. Tenant, someone in Tenant's control, or Tenant's pet commits any act that is outrageous in the extreme, on the property or in the immediate vicinity of the property per ORS 90.396;
- viii. Tenant perpetrates a criminal act of physical violence related to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking against a household member who is a tenant per ORS 90.445;
- ix. Tenant fails to obtain or maintain renters liability insurance, if required by Landlord; or
- x. otherwise provided by law.

B. Termination By Tenant. Tenant may terminate this Agreement if:

- i. there is a material noncompliance by Landlord with this Agreement or ORS 90.320, or ORS 90.730, per ORS 90.360;
- ii. Landlord intentionally or negligently fails to supply any essential service, per ORS 90.365;
- iii. Tenant is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking and complied with the notice requirement of ORS 90.453;
- iv. Tenant is a state service member and complied with the notice requirements of ORS 90.472;
- v. Tenant is in the armed forces and complied with the notice requirements of ORS 90.475; or
- vi. otherwise provided by law.

33. INSURANCE AND LIABILITY.

A. Liability. Landlord's insurance does not cover Tenant's personal possessions in the event of loss or damage due to fire, windstorm, flood, theft, vandalism, or other similar cause. If Tenant desires to insure personal possessions or to insure against Tenant's personal liability, Tenant should obtain renters insurance. Tenant's insurance shall be the primary insurance responsible for payment in the event of a loss, and Tenant or Tenant's insurance company will reimburse Landlord or Landlord's insurance company, if necessary. Tenant shall only be liable for personal injury or property damage caused by the negligence or willful acts of Tenant. Landlord shall only be liable for personal injury or property damage caused by the negligence or willful acts of Landlord.

B. Renters Insurance. Per ORS 90.222, Landlord may require Tenant to obtain and maintain renters liability insurance. Upon 30 days' written notice from Landlord, Tenant shall obtain renters liability insurance with an amount of coverage that does not exceed $100,000 per occurrence. Landlord may require proof of insurance only if Landlord provides Tenant with proof of Landlord's comparable liability insurance. Landlord may not require that Tenant name the Landlord as an additional insured. Tenant is exempt from the insurance requirement of this paragraph if Tenant's household income is equal to or less than 50% of area median income, adjusted for family size as measured up to a five-person family, as determined by the State Housing Council based on information from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. Landlord may not require Tenant to obtain or maintain renters liability insurance if the Premises has been subsidized with public funds.

34. SUBORDINATION. This Agreement is subordinate to any existing or future mortgages or deeds of trust.

35. RELEASE OF TENANT INFORMATION TO THIRD PARTIES. Tenant authorizes Landlord to disclose Tenant's rental history to a third party who requests the information for a governmental, judicial, law enforcement, or business purpose.

36. EMINENT DOMAIN. If any part of the Premises is condemned through power of eminent domain, this Agreement shall end and all condemnation proceeds shall belong to Landlord.
37. NOTICES AND AUTHORITY TO RECEIVE LEGAL PAPERS. Landlord, any person managing the Premises, and anyone designated by Landlord are authorized to accept service of process and receive other notices and demands at Landlord's address listed below. Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement or required under law, all notices required under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the other party personally, or sent by first class mail, postage prepaid, or securely and conspicuously posted, as follows:
 - A. To Tenant: the Premises, or at Tenant's last known address
 - B. To Landlord: {PropertyManagerEntity}, {PropertyManagerAddress}
38. ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS. Additional provisions are as follows:
{AdditionalProvisions}
39. ATTORNEYS' FEES. Per ORS 90.255, in any action or legal proceeding to enforce any part of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall recover damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, and court costs.
40. WAIVER. The failure by Landlord to insist in any one or more cases upon strict performance of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or a relinquishment for the future of any such term or condition of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Landlord waives the right to terminate this Agreement for a particular violation of this Agreement or of law if Landlord during three or more separate rental periods, accepts rent with knowledge of the violation by Tenant or accepts performance by Tenant that varies from the terms of this Agreement.
41. HEADINGS. The section headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not in any way affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.
42. ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS. Landlord and Tenant hereby consent to execution of this Agreement by electronic signature.
43. VALIDITY OF EACH PART. If any portion of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue to be valid and enforceable.
44. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between Landlord and Tenant. No promises or representations, other than those contained herein or implied by law, have been made by Landlord or Tenant. Any addendum or modification to this Agreement must be in writing and signed by Landlord and Tenant. Landlord shall provide Tenant with one copy of this Agreement and all amendments and additions.

Effective as of the date first set forth above.
